ULTIMATUM ISSUED

By the Emperor of Japan
Following a Cabinet Meeting.

CHINA MUST NOW BACK DOWN.

There is no other Alternative Except
War Since Japan Has Put Issue
Over Selsed Vessel Squarely Up to Pekin Government.

United Press Telegram.
TOKIO, Japan, March 7.—The Mikado has sent a demand to Peking for the immediate surrender of the Tatsu Maru, for an ample apology and full indemnity. The ultimatum is made clear. Neither delay nor further counter proposals are to be tolerated. If the demand is refused or ignored China is warned that Japan will act at once.

This followed a cabinet meeting and may be accepted as deliberate and the result of consideration. Unless China yields there is no alternative but war.

GEORGE G. GRAY DEAD.

Was Veteran Freight Conductor on Southwest Railroad and Native of Gibson.

George Gibson Gray, son of the late James and Elizabeth Gray, died yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the home of his sister, Mrs. John G. Patterson, Pittsburgh street, South Connelleville, aged 63 years. A complication of diseases from liver and kidney trouble caused death.

George Gray was a native of Gibson. He was born in the old Gray homestead, which stood where the R. & O. shops are now located. There his ten brothers and sisters were also born and reared. Those surviving are: Mrs. Matilda Huntly, Mrs. Margaret Murray, Mrs. John G. Patterson, Mrs. James M. Smith, all of Connelleville, or nearby; Mrs. D. W. Robinson of Ellwood City, Pa.; Mrs. Edward Snyder of Dawson, and Chas. C. Gray of Connelleville. Two children, George Gray of Scottsdale and Mrs. Charles Lane of South Connelleville, survive.

George Gray was a conductor on the P. R. R. for 25 years, retiring seven years ago. For a time he ran the old Pottsville branch passenger train, leaving over in Scottsdale. The funeral will be held from the Patterson home tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment in Chestnut Hill Cemetery.

STORY HOUR.

One Hundred Little Folks Were at Carnegie Library Yesterday.
One hundred children were present yesterday afternoon at the Children's Story Hour held at the Carnegie Free Library at the close of school. The story told by Miss Seaton was "Three Golden Apples." That the story was appreciated by the little ones was shown by the close attention given throughout the session.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS

Gather at Pritchard's Hall Last Evening and Hold Their Annual Election of Officers.

Company 28, Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, met last night in Pritchard's hall. The meeting was well attended and great enthusiasm was shown on the part of the members present. The annual election took place, several members aspiring to an office. The election resulted in the reelection of H. S. McCormick, captain; S. P. Hildebrand, First Lieutenant; William Jacobs, Second Lieutenant; O. B. Purinton, Recorder; J. I. Sedersky, Treasurer; W. L. Buttermore, S. H. Patterson and William McCormick, Trustees. The company bids fair to again take its place at the head of the Pennsylvania Brigade and will necessarily take a prominent part in the arrangements for the Grand Lodge convention which convenes here on the third Thursday of August. At the conclusion of the business session Captain McCormick surprised the boys with a generous supply of chicken, ham sandwiches and coffee, and the way the eatables disappeared would do credit to a company of regulars in the Philippines. Arrangements were made to meet at the same place on the first and third Friday evenings of each month.

VAUDEVILLE WAR.

Nickelodeons Will Start It and the New Season Will Also Take a Hand.

Sam Hantman, manager of Music Land, has started a vaudeville war in Connelleville. Commencing on Saturday, he will put on a seven act show afternoons and evenings. The best vaudeville people obtainable, he says, are to be brought to his little playhouse. There has been much rivalry recently among the family theatres for patronage. All of them have advanced to ten cent prices.

Hantman was the originator of the vaudeville idea in the local town, and now he proposes to take another big step forward, commencing on Monday. Manager Fred Robbins, of the New Solson, is also going to give Connelleville people a sample of the sort of vaudeville that is winning big houses at Uniontown. This day one week he will bring his Uniontown attraction over to Connelleville for an afternoon and evening performance. At the Grand Opera House vaudeville has proven a success at Uniontown. A trial is to be given it at the Solson.

AFTERNOON CARD CLUB

Members the Guests of Mrs. L. P. McCormick Yesterday Afternoon.

The Afternoon Card Club was delightfully entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. L. P. McCormick at her home on North Pittsburgh street between the hours of 2:30 and 5 o'clock. Six tables were brought into play and the games were bridge and five hundred. Miss Sarah Long won the club prize at bridge. Mrs. R. S. McKee carried off the guests' prize at five hundred, while the guests' prize at bridge was awarded to Miss Elsie Marshall.

At the close of the games a charmingly appointed luncheon was served. The next meeting will be held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. C. Norton on Carnegie avenue.

SILVER THIMBLE CLUB

The Guests of Mrs. Joseph Rilling of West Cedar Avenue.

IN BASEMENT

Of the Carnegie Library the Annual Inspection of Company D
Will Be Held.

Captain Joseph H. Simpson of Company D was in Connelleville yesterday making arrangements for the annual inspection of the company, which will take place Wednesday, March 18. In a circular issued to his men Captain Simpson says that it is unfortunate the inspection cannot take place in the Army and that it will be held in the Carnegie Library basement, on that account. He says that it is up to each member of the company to help out by being present at all drills and particularly on last night.

This will be Captain Simpson's last appearance with the company as his resignation will become effective after that time. Captain Simpson offered his resignation when he was removed from the West. The officers here to Pittsburgh, but owing to his having many duties in connection with the building of the new State Army in his care he was asked to continue until after the regular inspection and until such other matters can be settled up.

BLOCKADED STREET.

Tied Horse in Narrow Street and Went Off to Get Tanked Up and Is Arrested.

Officer Howard Anderson yesterday afternoon arrested Frank Brown, colored, upon the complaint of people along South Pittsburgh street and Church place. Brown tied a horse belonging to John Kuo in a pole in Church place near South Pittsburgh street, blocking the narrow street shortly after dinner. It was there at five o'clock. During that time he proceeded to imbibe freely and when Officer Anderson hunted him up and told him to remove the animal he was ugly. The officer placed him under arrest with some difficulty and last evening he was fined $7.50, in default of which he was committed to 72 hours.

John Smith was fined $5 for being drunk and disorderly on Water street. He annoyed the residents of that classic thoroughfare so badly that they called the police.

House of Representatives Orders Investigation of Charges Made by Lilley.

SPEAKER NAMES A COMMITTEE

Connecticut Congressman's Allegations Against Electric Boat Company to Be Sifted to the Bottom—Says Member of Congress Have Been Bribed.

Washington, March 7.—A resolution providing for an investigation of the charges made by Mr. Lilley of Connecticut that members of the naval affairs committee had been unduly influenced in recommending certain submarine torpedo boats was reported to the house of representatives by Mr. Daltzell (Pa.) from the committee on rules, and adopted by the house. The subject had been under consideration by the committee for two weeks. Speaker Cannon announced the following committee to conduct the investigation, Messrs. Boutwell, Stevens, Mann, Olmsted, Pa., Howard, G. and Broussard. La. Without a dissenting vote the resolution was adopted. Mr. Lilley was present but made no remarks.

The committee report is accompanied by a stenographic report of the proceedings before the committee on rules on Feb. 25 on which day Mr. Lilley appeared before that committee and read the following statement:

"I propose to show that for several years prior to the Lesser investigation into the Holland boat company its successor, the Electric Boat company, maintained in Washington an organized lobby for the purpose of influencing legislative appropriations in favor of the Holland boat and that it had under annual retainer C. E. Crocy, General Eppey, Hunter, C. E. Stevens, Senator M. C. Butler, C. S. McNair, Dr. W. R. Kerr and others.

"Thousands for Entertainment. "That for several years Mr. Ethel B. Bryant, vice president of the said company was a continuous visitor at Washington during congressional sessions and that he has spent large sums of money in furnishing entertainment to members of congress and that his expenditures along this line amount to thousands of dollars.

"That the senate amendment to the appropriation bill of March 2, 1907 was prepared and drafted by the attorney for the Electric Boat company for its purpose and with the intention to eliminate competition in submarine construction and to prevent the necessity of the navy from exercising any discretion in awarding contracts for submarines.

"That a thorough investigation by an impartial committee will show that large sums of money have been paid by the Electric Boat company to its officers, agents, contractors to campaign funds of members of congress, who favor and who have favored the Electric Boat company's monopoly of submarine construction, also that large sums of money have been spent to accomplish the defeat of members of the naval committee who did not favor the Electric Boat company.

"That an examination of the books and records of the Electric Boat company and of its predecessor, the Holland Boat company will show that large sums of money have been paid from their treasuries for the above purposes.

"Competition Suppressed. "That continued and repeated efforts have been made by representatives of the Electric Boat company and its predecessor to influence the action of the officials of the navy department and that such efforts in the past were so persistent and notorious as to call for the condemnation and criticism of high officials of the department whose testimony can be secured by an investigating committee.

"That it can be shown upon investigation that certain representatives of leading newspapers have been subsidized and paid by the Electric Boat company for favorable newspaper articles and reports in behalf of the said company.

"In reply to questions by Mr. Williams and Mr. Daltzell in the meeting of Feb. 25 Mr. Lilley refused to give the names of members who he claimed had received from the Electric Boat company large sums of money for campaign purposes.

Shortly before the adjournment of the house Chairman Boutwell got his committee together and party organized it. He said afterward that the organization would be completed at a meeting to be held today when the question of whether to make the committee's sessions public or private would be decided. Report that Representative Lilley was greatly incensed by the action of Speaker Cannon in not making him a member of the committee and that he had expected to be named as its chairman gained circulation and became a topic of discussion after the committee assignment had been announced. Mr. Lilley refused to discuss the situation.

Don't forget our Sanito offer. It's a good one.

CHARGES AGAINST DAY

President's Critic Accused of Violation of Church Discipline.

Brandon, Wt., March 7.—Charges have been preferred by the Rev. C. A. Cooke, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church in Brandon, against the Rev. Dr. J. R. Day, chancellor of Syracuse university, on the ground that Dr. Day defamed the character of President Roosevelt. The charges have been presented to the Rev. Dr. R. M. Watters, presiding elder of the New York conference of the Methodist church, which Chancellor Day is ecclesiastically attached.

When interviewed concerning the allegations, the Rev. Mr. Cooke said it was true that he had brought charges against Chancellor Day. He said that in a book entitled "A Road to Prosperity" written by Chancellor Day, President Roosevelt was severely criticized and that in his opinion Dr. Day had violated the rules of the Methodist Episcopal church in thus assailing the president. Mr. Cooke stated that the specific charge preferred was defamation of character. He considered that although Syracuse university is under obligations to the Standard Oil people by reason of a large money gift, Chancellor Day was not justified as a minister of the Methodist church in assailing President Roosevelt. The university itself is non-sectarian. It is expected the charges will be passed upon at the April conference of the New York district.

JOHNSON IN THE RACE

Minnesota Democratic State Committee Indorses Favorite Son.

St. Paul, Minn., March 7.—The Democratic state committee of Minnesota after a bitter fight adopted a resolution endorsing Governor John A. Johnson of Minnesota for the Democratic presidential nomination and recommending that he be named by the national convention at Denver on July 4.

As the meeting of the committee was presided over by Evans C. Fair, first vice secretary of the governor and Mr. Day voted for the Johnson resolution on every test and on the final ballot the action of the committee is held by political leaders is placing the governor formally in the race for the Democratic presidential nomination.

The Johnson resolution was carried by a vote of 75 to 2, after the Bryan adherents had forced two test votes on both of which they were defeated. The Bryan men insisted on a rollcall on every vote and gave notice in their speeches on the original resolution that they would not be bound by the action of the state committee, but would make a fight throughout the state for a delegation from Minnesota to the national convention instructed for Bryan. Moreover, a meeting of Bryan adherents held at the Ryan hotel immediately after the adjournment of the state committee formed a Bryan organization which proposes to carry the contest against Johnson into every precinct of the state.

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE

New York, March 7.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says today:

Favorable symptoms are more numerous in the commercial outlook, especially in respect to the growth of confidence. Jobbers note more pressure to replenish depleted stocks of staple merchandise orders in many cases bring for delivery next fall. The advancing season has also contributed to the better feeling by accelerating the distribution of spring goods and stimulating interest in the building trades. Industrial plants are more active from production rising to be best weekly average in three months. Credits are still closely scanned and mercantile collections are by no means satisfactory. Yet payments are more prompt and the volume of business is distinctly heavier.

There is a promise of permanence in the steady improvement in the steel and iron industry that would be lacking were merely more sensational. Each week brings a few more rules and furnaces into the active list while specifications on old contracts can stand by call for a larger tonnage.

THE Princess Virginia

Nevertheless it was true that court that from him had more than once used the girl and good looking captain of cavalry for a cipher in pulling some very big and hot chestnuts out of the fire. At all events if anyone from the chancelor's pack (this nickname) had been in the room, it would have found difficulty in keeping up appearances without the allowance made by his powerful half brother. The all associated with the emperor in the court and the emperor's liked to think that news from the chancelor's must sooner or later be worked into a wild blown sort of roses across the water to Schloss Brückstein.

She was still less displeased than surprised, therefore, when the emperor having been three days at Landenberg with two more days of his visit to run an urgent message arrived for Captain von Havel from his brother.

Four old letters were waiting with his enemy's name and appeared and wished for the emperor's immediate presence.

Such a summons could not be neglected. Egon's whole future depended upon his half brother's call. He hurried to the barracks in asking leave to desert his pleasant post for a few hours. So of course the word the chancelor's regret with the emperor and Egon went off charged with a friendly message from the emperor as well.

When the captain of cavalry had set out from Landenberg to Schloss Brückstein by the shortest way—across the lake in a small motor boat—promising to be back in time for dinner and a concert, the baroness spent all her energy in getting up an impromptu riding party which would give Leopold the chance of another tele with Miss Mowbray.

Already many such chances had been arranged to elicit as not to create gossip, and if the situation destined by the baroness to disgust Leopold with his chancelor's matrimonial projects did not advance by leaps and bounds it was certainly not the fault of Baroness von Lyndal.

"Egon has been told to use his eyes and ears for all they're worth at Landenberg, and now he's called upon to hand in his first report," she said to herself when the younger von Breitstein was off on his mission across the lake.

But for once at least, the chancelor's "friend" was wronged by an unjust suspicion. He arrived at Schloss Brückstein ignorant of his brother's mission in sending for him, though he shrewdly suspected it to be something quite different from the one alleged.

The chancelor was in his study a deep windowed tower room with walls book lined nearly to the cross beamed ceiling. He sat leaning a budget of letters when Egon was announced, and if he were really ill he did not betray his suffering. The square face with its beetling brows eyes of somber fire and forehead unpressed as a cathedral dome, showed no new lines graven by pain.

"Sit down, Egon," he said abruptly, leaning in his arm a cigarette stamped with the head of Hunyadi's King. "I'm ready for you in a moment."

The young man took the least uncomfortable chair in the room which from his point of view was to say the least in its favor because the newest place of furniture there had been made a day or two before. Egon was not a day or two before. Egon was not a day or two before. Egon was not a day or two before.

Egon sighed and his eyes turned mechanically from his own image on shining steel to the letter held in an old hand so veined that it reminded the young man of a rock, notched with the sprawling roots of ancient trees. He had just time to recognize the writing as that of Adalbert, crown prince of Hungary, whom he knew slightly when keen eyes, outlined with furrow and wrinkled lids glanced up from the letter.

"It's coming," thought Egon. "What can the old chap have to find out?" But to his surprise the chancelor's first words had no connection with him or his mission.

"So our emperor is amusing himself at Landenberg?" Egon's face brightened. He could not believe it. Egon's face brightened. He could not believe it. Egon's face brightened. He could not believe it.

BLAME THE JANITOR.

Bereaved Parents of Collingwood Hold Him Responsible for Their Sorrow.

FIFTY LITTLE VICTIMS BURIED

And Today Fifty More Will Be Laid Away in Village Burying Ground. Teachers Give Evidence at the Coroner's Inquest.

Cleveland, March 7.—Collingwood came to a full realization of her loss when suddenly and solemnly the provisions of death began to wind their way toward the elementary school, the battered and charred remains of some of the 167 children whose lives were snuffed out in Wednesday morning's catastrophe in the Lakewood school. From 9 o'clock in the morning until dark there was no cessation in the funeral cortège. Those who had no need to mourn as a personal loss stood in the streets with bare heads as the grim procession passed.

One of the saddest scenes was that of the three children of Janitor Hirtler, held jointly with the services for three in her little one. Mourners against the janitor could be heard about the village as grief-stricken parents sought an object upon which to wreak vengeance forgetting that Hirtler himself was walking with bowed head and broken heart behind the biers of three of his beloved ones.
